

CHAPTER 29

Prayer: Lord, you give me breath. Grant me ears to hear your voice every day and the courage to spend the time, resources, and energy you give me to delight the Father.

In the city of Alpharetta lives an Ambassador for Jesus Christ, who is filled with the Holy Spirit, faith, and love for Jesus. Every day, he seeks ways to encourage, support, and share his faith with strangers and friends; however, his passion lies in helping men discover their true identity in Christ.

STEP 2:

Holy Spirit, fill me with your power so that I can lead others to Christ, to witness the miracle of salvation.

Holy Spirit, fill me with the gifts of discernment and prophecy so that I may better share the Gospel and speak SEC to brothers and sisters in the body.

Holy Spirit, please kick me in the pants every day to share the reason for my hope and the courage to walk in the spirit of discernment and boldness to speak prophetically.

RESULTS

To strip away everything that hinders me from finishing the race and hearing the words, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."
